

North Logan City Library
Library Employee Personal Phone Use Policy

In public areas of the library, and at the circulation desk, library staff should only use personal cell phones for library related matters. Cell phones should never distract from library work, assigned responsibilities, or especially from helping patrons.

Approved by the North Logan City Library Board. 9/9/2021.